Tabular CV of Prof. em. Dr. Rüdiger Grimm

University Koblenz, Department of Informatics
Fraunhofer Institute for Secure Information Technology (SIT), Darmstadt
(February 2026)

1970-77	Student of Mathematics and Physics at the Universities of Göttingen and Heidelberg
1977-85	Secondary school teacher in Tanzania, programmer in Dresdner Bank Frankfurt/Main, and application consultant in the University computer center in Essen
1985-2000	Scientist in the Research Institute of "Secure Telecooperation" in GMD, Darmstadt (Fraunhofer Institute SIT since 2000). Focus on Internet communication and IT security
1993	Doctorate in Informatics in University of Frankfurt/Main
1993-2000	Lectures at the University of Frankfurt on IT security
2000-2005	Professor for Multimedia Application Systems at the Technische Universität Ilmenau, Germany.
2002-2005	Head of Research Group "Security for Virtual Goods" of Fraunhofer Institute for Digital Media Technology, Ilmenau (IDMT)
2005-2015	Professor for IT-Risk-Management at the University Koblenz-Landau
2013–2015	Dean of the Faculty of Informatics of the University Koblenz-Landau
Since Nov 2008	Consultant and Ombudsman in Fraunhofer Institute of Secure Information Technology (SIT), Darmstadt
Sep 2010	Elected Fellow of the German Society of Informatics (GI)
2018-2024	Teacher in primary school for IT at Christian-Morgenstern-Schule, Darmstadt
Since Sep 2021	Member of the Jury of "Jugend forscht" (young people research)

His professional interest is in digital communication, reliable usage of the Internet and related questions on security and legal binding. His research focus is on secure Internet applications like electronic payment, electronic voting, privacy, and on the protection of digital rights.

Recently he has published articles of fictional nature and about classical music and genealogy.